THE SPIRIT OF DUKE LIVES ON AT DUKE'S BEACH HOUSE

KĀ`ANAPALI, MAUI – DUKE'S BEACH HOUSE, the latest Maui venture for T S Restaurants brings the spirit of Duke's to the Valley Isle's Honua Kai Resort and Spa. Located on the crystal waters of Kā`anapali North Beach, DUKE'S BEACH HOUSE serves breakfast, lunch and dinner daily in the open-air dining room reminiscent of an era when surfing and canoeing reigned supreme.

"Like its sister Duke's restaurants, DUKE'S BEACH HOUSE has its own unique sense of place honoring legendary water man Duke Kahanamoku in a stunning oceanfront setting. We believe we have created a place where Duke Kahanamoku himself would have wanted to spend time," said Shaughn Helliard, General Manager of Duke's Beach House. "We welcome both visitors and kama'aina alike with live local music, great food and our trademark service with Aloha."

Keeping with its home-like feel, the restaurant features a mix of warm, welcoming materials such as wood, stone and tile along with color schemes of rich blues and greens to mimic the ocean surroundings. In addition, the dining room décor features historic photos of Duke Kahanamoku, glass ball light fixtures and an authentic koa canoe. The open-air dining room leads to an outdoor dining lanai, bringing to life the indoor-outdoor lifestyle that is an integral part of Hawaii living, as well as offering amazing views from every table.
